Arts Coordinating Council To Sponsor Autorama

By GUNNAR NORBERG

Monterey will have its first annual "Autorama" Oct. 24, 25 and 26 at the Monterey County Fairgrounds.

It will be a case of business supporting the arts. The Monterey Peninsula New Car Dealers Association is working with the sponsoring organization, the Arts Coordinating Council of Monterey County, to present the "Autorama" as a benefit for the Council.

The Council coordinates and assists in the activities of the local organizations listed above.

There will be a gala opening night, Oct. 24, 7-10 p.m., open to the public. This will feature a fashion show, with gowns and jewelry created by local designers. There will be a no-host cocktail hour with complimentary hors d'oeuvres and music to-look-at-cars-by, provided by "The Gallery," a George Miller Combo.

"Family Days" will be Saturday, Oct. 25 from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m., and Sunday, Oct. 26 from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m.

There will be continuous entertainment and valuable door prizes.

Committees are at work under the direction of the Chairman, Mrs. Monte (Kay) Harrington and Mrs. Rody Holt, president of the Council. Mrs. Eugene H. Melvin is Executive Secretary of the Council.

Animal Blessing At All Saints

The Second Blessing of Animals will be held in the All Saints Episcopal Church's patio at 9th and Lincoln Streets Sunday afternoon at 4 p.m.

This event, on the Sunday nearest to the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi (Oct. 4) will be highlighted by a talk by the Rev. Father Lawrence Farrell of Monterey.

A special offering for the work of the S.P.C.A. Animal Shelter will be taken.

Clergy of the host parish and high school youth groups will take part.

Circle Group Will Bestow 'Oscars'

The Monterey Peninsula is about to have its own "academy awards" ceremony.

To be held at the La Playa Hotel in Carmel on Tuesday evening, Oct. 7, the affair will recognize outstanding performances by actors and actresses at the Circle Theatre during the 1969-70 season, which closed Aug. 31.

Fifteen specially-designed statuettes will be presented for several categories, including best performances by an actor, an actress, supporting actors and actresses, and back-stage technicians.

In addition, a special award will be presented by Sidney Frohman, Peninsula theatrical producer, to honor the memory of Charles and Daniel Frohman, members of his family who were theatre "greats" of earlier days. The special award will be presented to an individual who has rendered devoted service to the cause of community theatre on the Peninsula during the past year.

A panel of judges will make the selections for the various awards. Each of the judges is experienced in theatre but none is connected with the Circle Theatre. Names of the members of the panel will not be announced, according to William Scholefield, general chairman for the event.

Members of the board of governors of Community Theatre of the Monterey Peninsula, the non-profit parent organization of the Golden Bough Players which presents the productions at Circle Theatre, will be asked to announce the awards and hand the statuettes to the winners.

Hollywood tradition will be followed, according to Scholefield, even to the point of having a disinterested certified public account attest the selections, and the master of ceremonies may even use the phrase "the envelope, please."

The awards ceremony will take place at 9 p.m. at the La Playa, with a no-host social hour at 6:30 and dinner at 7:30 preceding the event. The evening's activities are open to the public. Reservations for the dinner may be made by calling the theatre office, 624-2669.

Post Office Taking Hard Look At Rural Post Boxes

The Carmel Post Office has a problem. Mail boxes.

Wrong sizes. Wrong markings. Hidden. Fallen down. Wrong height.

And to intensify the problems, two additional factors are causing the Post Office trouble: New rural carriers and the transition from rural box numbers to street numbers.

According to Mel Taylor, superintendent of mails, something has to give.

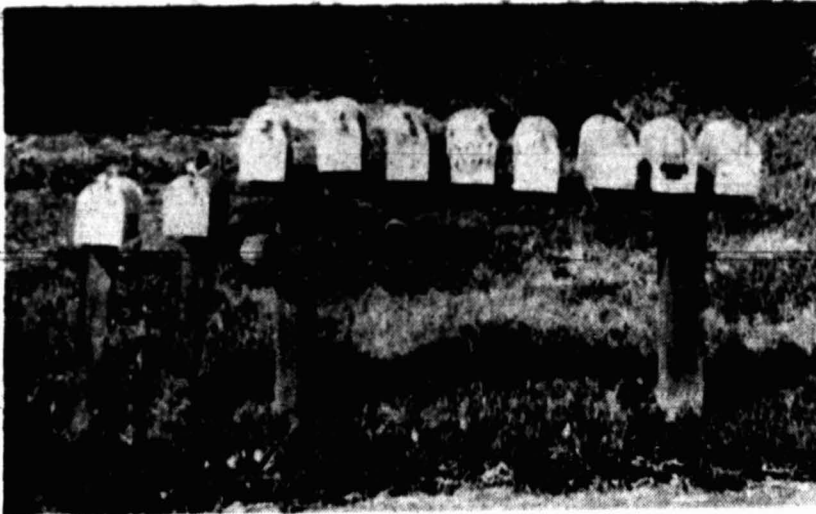

Too many post boxes on rural routes have the names of the boxholders on the sides, where the carrier, driving a car, cannot see the markings due to obstruction of other nearby boxes.

Some boxes are too high, some are too low.

Some have not yet included the street number and have only the route and box number.

"So far, we haven't taken any action as far as refusing delivery to these illegal boxes, but we will have to if corrections aren't made pretty soon," Taylor says.

UP AND DOWN - Mail boxes, ideally, should be 42 inches from the roadbed. Some boxes are placed with the owners measuring from the ground, some from the roadbed. Samples can be found throughout the Carmel Rural Route area of boxes mounted on post measuring from 24 to 60 inches high.

HORRIBLE EXAMPLE - Seven boxes on a rural route demonstrate just about everything that should not happen to the carrier. The railing is set much too low, one box has fallen over on its side, the boxes are all marked differently or not at all.

MAYA RUBBINGS — An exhibit of more than 100 rubbings of ancient Maya relief sculpture will be shown at the California Palace of the Legion of Honor, starting Oct. 4. The rubbings are by Merle Greene, of Pebble Beach, who is shown working during the summer of 1969 at the Alta de Sacrificios, Guatemala, doing a rubbing. A plastic sheet has been erected over the stela to keep out rain. The smudge pot of termite nests in the foreground helps to battle the mosquitoes.

'White Cane' Days Set By Lions Club

Assemblyman Bob Wood (R-Greenfield) today endorsed the efforts of the Lions Clubs of Monterey County in promoting "White Cane Days" on Oct. 3 and 4.

On these days, Lions Club members will be on the streets throughout the County soliciting donations on behalf of the countless numbers of citizens who aren't as fortunate as ourselves and suffer from blindness.

Wood said that he was proud of the Lions Club members for taking time off from work and their families to participate in this worthwhile project.

"I want to wish them every success and I am sure that the residents of Monterey County will respond in relation to what they feel they can give."

All monies collected will be used for the blind. "Administrative costs and the cost of the miniature canes will be donated by members of the Lions Clubs" said Wood.

Nite Cappers 3-Day Rally

The Nite Cap International, an organization dedicated to assistance to the aged, blind and underprivileged, will gather at the Carmel Valley Inn for a three-day rally starting Friday, Oct. 17.

The rally will be kicked-off by a dinner at 7 p.m. and a live broadcast from the Inn over radio station KSL in Salt Lake City, the home base of the Nite Cappers.

Herb Jepko, originator of the radio show that was the beginning of the Nite Cap movement, will return to the Monterey Peninsula for the fourth time to act as host on the show, which claims more than two million listeners, and 136 individual Nite Stands with 163,000 members.

The public is invited to attend the broadcast or any other of the varied activities during the three-day conclave. For further information call the Carmel Valley Inn at 373-4491.

'Free University' Meeting At MPC Set For Oct. 8

A meeting for all Peninsulans interested in organizing or participating in a "free university" has been called for Wednesday, Oct. 8, 8 p.m. in Room 201 in the social sciences building at Monterey Peninsula College.

Leading the discussion will be Leonard Epstein, a new English instructor at MPC who developed "The University for Man" at Kansas State University, where he was a candidate for a doctoral degree.

In organizing a "free university" on the Monterey Peninsula, Epstein says he visualizes a "drawing together" of all the diverse elements of the area: people from every community, old and young, military and businessmen, students and teachers — "anyone with curiosity and an interest in learning."

Epstein defines a "free university" as "a learning situation without a formal classroom, a loose structure which serves to bring together various talents for mutual benefit." There are no "traditional" teachers, he says. "Rather, there are conveners."

"The Basic assumption is that one does not have to have a degree to teach nor does one have to be in a formal classroom to learn. Learning occurs where there is curiosity."

At MPC, Epstein has been discussing the free university concept with faculty and students, meeting much enthusiasm. "Several groups are already in the formative stage," he says. He listed legal rights of citizens, classical guitar, the purpose of education, creative writing, exotic cookery and contemporary authors as some of the subjects which have been proposed for "classes."

Interested persons who cannot attend the Oct. 8 meeting and have questions or suggestions for possible groups, may write: "Free University, Monterey Peninsula College, 980 Fremont, Monterey."

Hawaiian Wedding On Oahu

A wedding in the Hawaiian tradition took place on Oahu, early this month when the former Barbara Viljoen of Carmel Valley, was married to Wadsworth G. Fonseca.

The bride wore a floor-length holo muu of white lace. On her head she wore a maile wreath and she carried a nosegay of white daisies.

Martha Ziegler Marries

The wedding of Martha Ann Ziegler and Charles Allaire, both of Carmel Valley took place recently at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Gordon Ziegler, the bride is a Carmel High School graduate and attended Monterey Peninsula College.

Charles attended Junipero Memorial High School and plans to work with the U.S. Forestry Service. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allaire of Carmel Valley.

Martha was attended by Elizabeth Hagn of Carmel Valley, her maid of honor, and by Mary Giem of Carmel Valley, Orley White of San Jose, and Mrs. Susan Leonardo of Monterey.

Richard Davis of Carmel Valley was best man, and ushers were Stephen Antoncich and Richard Allaire, the groom's brother, both of the Valley.

Martha is the sister of Paul Ziegler who will be home in November from Vietnam where he has been serving with the Army.

The groom is the brother of Mark, Christine, Zvonne, Annette, and Jacqueline Allaire.

white and wore traditional leis.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, W.E. Viljoen, who wore a green lei and both mothers of the couple wore three strand leis.

Mrs. Thomas (Jeannine) Bottaro, of Carmel Valley, flew to the wedding and later visited her parents' home.

The bridal couple flew to the mainland where they have been honeymooning in Carmel Valley, Emerald Bay, Lake Tahoe and Yosemite before returning to Hawaii.

There the new Mrs. Fonseca is associated with Starr-McCombs in Honolulu and the groom is assistant manager of Coco's of Honolulu.

Women Voters Study

"The Electoral College — What Choice for Change" will be discussed at three meetings by members of the League of Women Voters of the Monterey Peninsula in order to add their opinions to that of 157,000 members in the 50 states toward formation of a League position for action.

Interested public is invited to attend any of the meetings, which will be held: Wednesday, October 8, 9:30 a.m., at 515 Junipero, in the Pacific Grove Community Center; Thursday, October 9, 11:45 a.m., (bring a lunch) in the Casa Estrada, on Tyler Street in Monterey; and Friday, October 10, 9:30 a.m., in the West Parlor, Carmel Valley Manor.

Rags To Riches

Rummage Sale

The Littlebits Chapter of Children's Home Society will hold its 11th annual "Rags to Riches" rummage sale, on Saturday, Oct. 4 from 9 to 2 pm at the American Legion Hall in Carmel on Dolores between 8th and 9th.

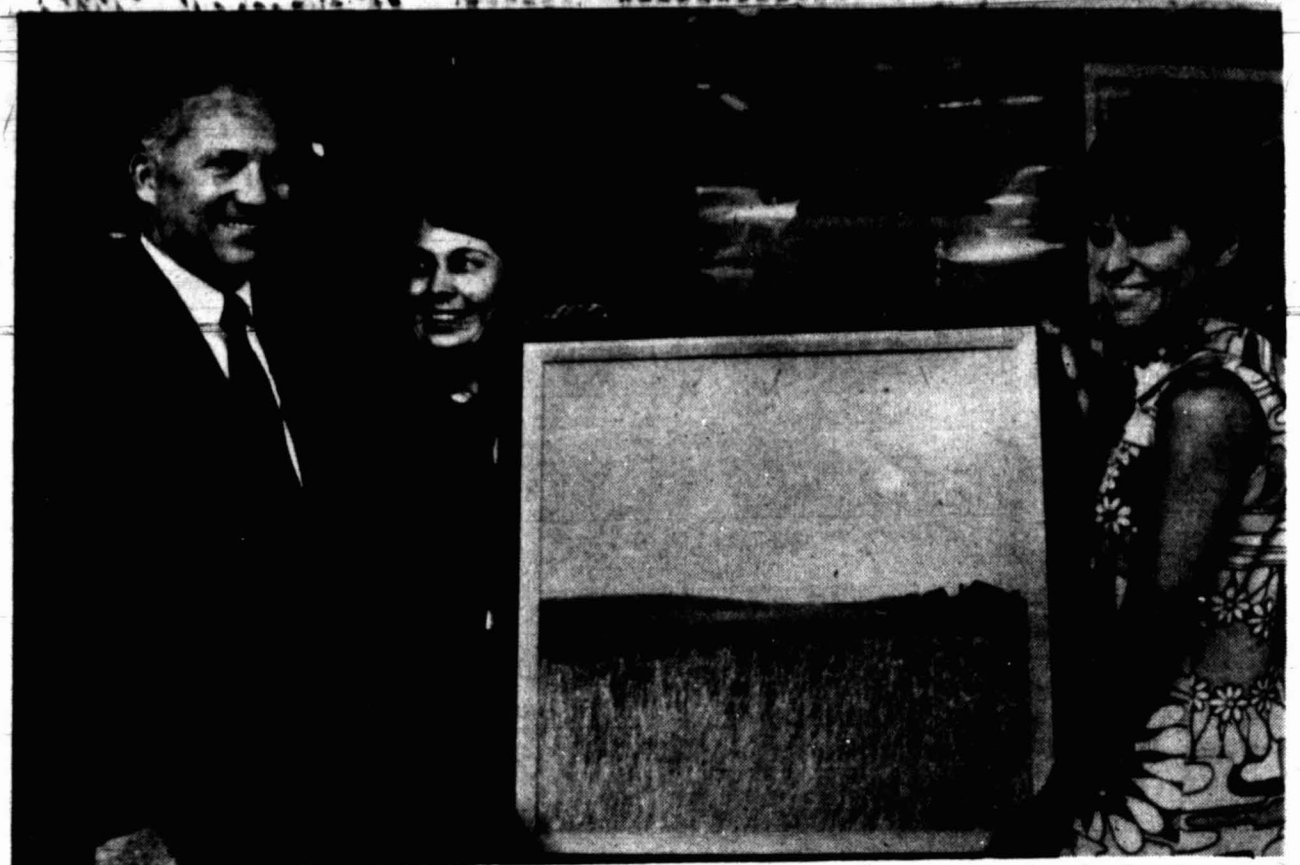

The chairmen for this event are Mrs. Don Borden 624-3700 and Mrs. Dan Yurkovich 624-2114. If you have any rummage or saleable items which you would like to donate, please call the above numbers.

Proceeds from this event will go to the Children's Home Society Adoption Agency whose work is carried out state wide. The area office covering Monterey-San Benito-Santa Cruz counties, is located at 444 Pearl St. in Monterey.

Woman's Club Meets

The 1969-70 season of the Carmel Woman's Club will open October 6 with Carol Larsen as a soloist of outstanding calibre. Critics state that Miss Larsen captivates her audience with her thrilling voice, magnetic personality, striking beauty and versatile showmanship.

She has given a command performance at the White House, sung in Carnegie Hall, the San Francisco Opera House and performed in many foreign countries.

Carmel Foundation Classes

A class in arts and crafts will begin Monday, October 6 from 2 to 4, at the Carmel Foundation's Town House, Lincoln near 8th.

The six-session class will cover a variety of projects including Christmas items. Members will be shown various things from which they may select what interests them most to make.

Carmel Mission Fiesta Colorful, Exciting

It was a sparkling sunny day just right for drawing thousands to the inner courtyard of the Carmel Mission Basilica to celebrate the sixth annual Fiesta de San Carlos Borromeo.

The sound of guitars and singing drew everyone to the music stand where the Manuel Campos orchestra played for dancing. These sounds were mixed with squeals of pleasure as people won stuffed animals, sausages and cheeses in games of skill and chance.

The smell of these was mixed with the enticing odors of barbecuing chicken which many people sampled during the afternoon.

Strong bright colors of the paper pinatas, enormous paper flowers and balloons as they bobbed up all over the place were bright accents among the many Spanish costumes.

Ladies in mantillas, among them Adele Bramlett, chief costumier for the Monterey Bi-Centennial celebration, were joined by gentlemen in Spanish dress.

Father George McMenamin thanked all those who contributed home baked cakes, garden plants and hard work to make the afternoon a pleasure to all who came, especially Mrs. Kenneth (Lois) Jones, John Calcagno and Phil Coniglio who planned everything.

FATHER GEORGE — McMenamin sang a Mexican folk song with the Manuel Campos Orchestra at the annual La Fiesta at the Carmel Mission on Sunday.

FOLK DANCERS — Joyce Kephart and Pat Blanchard were joined by such old faithfuls as Mrs. Tony (Margaret) Castro.

SOMBRERO — Was almost as tall as he.

SPANISH MISS — One of the dancers.

Sewing Lectures By Bach

Each year Carmel has its Bach Festival, but a different Bach will be in town Oct. 8 and 9 — a Bach who bills himself as the "Chopin of the Sewing Machine."

The "Chopin of the Sewing Machine" is Alfred Bach, a jockey-sized Englishman with twinkling brown eyes and a bouncing enthusiasm that is so refreshing in this age when it's fashionable to be bored.

Alfred Bach is the father of four, all of whom sew, the youngest being a daughter of 10. His two boys sew things appropriate to their age — shirts, shorts and Batman costumes.

But Bach, trained as a mechanical engineer, has dedicated himself to making sewing fun.

"Chopin took the discipline out of music and gave it beauty. I take the drudgery out of sewing and make it fun.

Bach will bring his ideas to the Holiday Inn's Cypress Room in a series of lectures designed to make sewing a delight rather than a chore. He'll lecture morning and evening on Oct. 8 and 9.

For further information call 624-1841.

Teachers Show Workshop Materials

A display of teaching materials developed by 37 elementary and 7 high school teachers in the summer workshops for the Carmel School District was held for the benefit of the school board last week.

Board members also visited the Graphic Arts room in which teacher Jack Savage demonstrated the new offset press and other equipment. He showed them the football programs produced in the first week.

James Agan showed color slides of power mechanics procedures used in the industrial arts program to develop visual type programmed learning for students identified as having high ability, but low achievement.

The board approved several requests for interdistrict attendance and transportation reimbursement requests and again struggled with the knotty transportation problems of 29 Palo Colorado students.

The use of a $2000 7 passenger car to transport students 2.1 miles to the canyon to the point considered too steep for safety was discussed.

A vehicle with a second gear 1 ton truck type transmission is needed, said a Palo Colorado resident, to climb and descend the grade safely, or else a leveling of the narrow, winding road.

He described the plight of a seven year old girl who gets up at 5:30 a.m. in order to reach Highway 1 by 7:30 to meet the school bus which will get her to River School by 9 a.m.

School, he said, seems to be getting farther away all the time. In 1915 there was an elementary school at the top of the grade. Later a school was built at the entrance to the Canyon, but this was closed last year.

He raised the question of whose responsibility it was for the supervision and safety of children between their homes and the school. A public hearing will be held on the problem at the next meeting, Oct. 8.

It was agreed to apply for Title I funds in cooperation with Pacific Grove to purchase instructional equipment and materials.

summer school program compared with $1,874 for the previous summer, was presented. It was pointed out that the district received $5,000 more in grants the previous summer and that over three times as many children were accommodated this summer.

A Monterey Peninsula Girl Students Athletic schedule for contests in swimming and archery, basketball, field hockey, tennis, volleyball and softball was distributed.

First date will be Wednesday, Oct. 15, when Carmel High School girls will host Junipero and Santa Catalina schools in swimming and archery.

Gifts from the Carmel Kiwanis Club for an 8 mm camera and view-splicer for the CHS Film Production class; from Donald Borden and Neil Jensen of two sets of golf clubs; and from the Drug Information and Youth Crisis Center for 900 medical abstracts were accepted.

A study session on the drug problem was announced for Monday, Oct. 6 at the district administration offices.

TIME OUT — is called by Mrs. Sharon Miller, intermediate teacher at River School, who is teaching Steck O'Neil and the rest of the class the rules of touch football.

On Tuesday morning, October 28, she will again start her regular weekly story time from 9:30 until 10 a.m.

Teamwork At River School

The big news at River School this year according to its principal, Edwin L. McCurry, is the big upswing in musical instrument instruction. Over 65 students have signed up in Sharon Jones' classes, of which 30 form a band.

Gene Perrine is again teaching singing and has formed a 4th and 5th grade chorus and a 2nd and 3rd grade chorus. He will put on a creative musical drama such as he does in the theater in Big Sur during the summer.

Claire Duyguo, who taught first grade at River for several years, is now a traveling art teacher and spends half her time this way.

Regular teachers work in teams. New primary teacher Mary Ellen Jensen works with Mrs. Leidig; Mrs. Paula Boys with Mrs. Powell and Mr. Rothe.

New intermediate teachers, Mrs. Sharon Miller, Miss Karen Ross and Mrs. Arlene Levy who was at Middle School last year, form a team.

RIVER SCHOOL PRINCIPAL — Edwin McCurry receives a colorful bouquet of flowers made by Gerrie Baumann, Amy Lewitke, Michele Rico and Wendy Morrison in Miss Karen Ross' class.

BROWNIES — Patty Miller, Carol Bialek, and Heidi England are being helpful watering plants after school for their new teacher, Mrs. Paula Boys, at River School.

NEW TEACHER — Mrs. Paula Boys instructs Laurie Robotti and Heidi England.

"Bread Breaking in Virginia"

"Cookery means the knowledge of Medea and of Circe and of Helen and the Queen of Sheba. It means the economy of your grandmothers; it means much testing and no wasting. In fine, it means that you are to be perfectly and always ladies — "loaf-givers" — RUSKIN

Since staying at the old Jervey homestead in Powhatan, Va., loaf making and loaf giving is the order of the day. Rest assured that everyone is most ladylike about the seemingly easy task.

As bread breaking spells hospitality at its best, we'll first give you some recipes for southern breads handed down from generation to generation.

Aunt Mollie's Batter Bread

Stir one cup white water-ground cornmeal into 2 cups boiling water with salt to taste. Stir, remove from fire and add 2 T. butter. Beat well until no lumps remain, add 4 beaten whole eggs and beat in one cup milk. Beat again and pour into hot bacon-greased baking dish or black cast iron muffin pans used for generations. Bake 25 minutes in 400 F. oven.

Serve hot with butter and honey or syrup.

Southern Split Biscuit

Two eggs; 1 cup milk; 1 yeast cake; 2/3 cup butter; 5 cups flour; 3 t. sugar; 1 t. salt; 3 Irish potatoes, peeled.

Mash hot potatoes, cream butter in hot potatoes allowing this to become lukewarm. Beat in eggs, sugar, salt, milk and yeast cake. Stir in enough flour to make nice dough. Work dough with fingers 15 min. Let rise 2 1/2 hours the first time. Work down and let rise second time for 2 hours. Roll, cut with biscuit cutter; dip top of biscuit in melted butter. Place buttered half on top of other biscuit. Serve piping hot.

Fluffy Golden Grits Bread

Scald 2 cups milk and 1/3 cup quick-cooking hominy grits with 1 t. salt and 1 t. sugar. Stir constantly until desired thickness, or about 5 min. Cool. Then add beaten yolks of 2 eggs; fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Melt 2 T. butter in casserole and pour in batter. Bake 30 min. at 375 F. Serve at once. You can add grated "nippy" cheese if desired.

PARTY PLANS

by Phyllis Jervey

Sally Lunn

One T. butter and 1 T. Crisco dissolved in 1 cup hot water; 1 yeast cake dissolved in 1/4 cup lukewarm water; 1 cup scalded milk; 3 eggs, beaten separately; 1 t. salt and 2 T. sugar.

Melt butter and shortening in hot water. Add milk and when lukewarm, add yeast and other items. Sift in the flour. Mix well and let rise until double in bulk. Put in greased heavy muffin pans and let rise again. Bake about 30 min in 375 oven. Serve hot with marmalade or jelly.

So much for Southern breadmaking and sharing. Now we want to tell you about an ultra modern innovation which has taken place since our last visit here. (Powhatan, Va... on the James River).

This is known as the annual Jude's Ferry "float-down-the-river" safari. About 40 to 50 members of the Richmond Theater amateur group assemble at our cousin Helen Jervey's log cabin high above the banks of the James river. Everyone brings his own inner tube, suitably decorated with wild imagination, in which to float down the James River.

The hilarious crowd go up river in large trucks, complete with equipment from which point they embark. Girls tie cigarettes and matches in their top hairdos. Men bring their own liquor. There is also a life raft carrying an ice chest of canned beer bringing up the rear of the inner tube water-safari.

The trip takes 2 1/2 hours with one rest period on the way down river where there is a rock "island" in the middle of the swift under current. There are all manners of headress, Helen relates. Parasols, huge hawaiian hats, white hunter pith — helmets to guard against the mid-summer sun.

All of this gayety and adventure ends at Helen's where outdoor showers are taken with water hose. Changing from bathing suits to less informal attire precedes the delicious Virginia supper.

Huge platters of fried chicken, 3 kinds of salads: cole slaw, fruit and vegetable; some of the hot breads we've already given, deviled eggs, ice cream cones and pots of coffee. But next year Helen plans to serve Brunswick Stew, that perennial Virginia-Georgia favorite, from a huge black cauldron out-of-doors under a full August moon. Don't you Carmelites wish you could attend? Here's one who will for sure... Cousin Phyllis, non-swimmer but kitchen volunteer.

In case anyone in the Valley wants to try the same idea on the Carmel River, we're giving an authentic "receipt" for old southern

Powhatan Brunswick Stew

One 4-lb. fat hen; 4 cups corn; 2 cups okra cut up. 2 onions; 1/2 t. Tabasco sauce; 3 T. butter; salt and pepper to taste; 2 cups peeled and seeded tomatoes, cut into quarters; 2 cups small butter beans (limas); 2 cups chopped celery; 2 t. Worcestershire sauce; 1/2 cup tomato catsup; chopped parsley; Accent (modern touch); carrots. (Serves 6)

Boil hen gently in large pot with salt, pepper and peeled carrots with onions, both sliced. When chicken is tender, pull meat from bones and return to stock. Add other ingredients and cook very slowly until mixture thickens of its own accord. Just before serving, if the stew is not thick enough, add a small handful of rolled-out bread crumbs. Mixture must be liquid enough, however, to leave gravy-juice to serve the whole beautiful potful over steamed dry white rice. Many receipts call for cut up potatoes, added towards the end instead of serving over rice. Indeed, both are usually used. Season to taste.

Made a day or so ahead of a gathering, such as the "floating-down-the-river" expedition (the only one known) the stew flavors meld and improve with standing (in the ice-chest... "frig..")

Documentary At MPC Oct. 8

A special showing of the television film, "The Making of the President — 1960," has been scheduled for Wednesday, Oct. 8, 8 p.m. in Lecture-Forum 103 at Monterey Peninsula College.

There is no charge for admission, and tickets will not be required.

The 80-minute documentary is divided into two segments: "The Battle for the Nomination" and "The Battle for the Presidency." Released in 1963, it won the Cannes Film Festival Award that year for the best television program from any country.

The film dramatically illustrates the political struggle involved in securing the presidency.

Movie Review

Che! — Omar Sherif has an almost uncanny resemblance to the late Cuban revolutionary leader, otherwise the picture is utterly ridiculous. Its not anti or pro Guevara, not documentary or fiction. At the State.

Guns of the Magnificent Seven — This is a sequel to "The Magnificent Seven," and also deals with the Mexican revolution at the end of the 19th century. Lot's of action. George Kennedy is outstanding in this shoot 'em up. At the Valley Cinema.

Midnight Cowboy — Jon Voight is a Texas drifter who winds up in New York, and Dustin Hoffman is a corrupt con man who serves as his guide. This is a highly recommended, extremely thoughtful comedy. At the Steinbeck on Cannery Row.

I Am Curious, (Yellow) — Here it is, the Swedish film that has raised such an uproar. Satire mixes with interesting explorations of Swedish culture with notoriously explicit sex scenes. Not worth the fuss that has been raised over its legitimacy. At the Hill.

3 Into 2 Won't Go — Beautifully photographed, expertly acted melodrama about a husband, a wife and a girl friend. Add a difficult mother-in-law banished to a rest home, and you have a well-done production. At the Regency.

Last Summer — An unusual motion picture indicting careless and indifferent parents for some of the unusual behavior of their children. Barbara Hershey, Richard Thomas and Bruce Davison are the kids who destroy two of their peers. At the Golden Bough.

Before Winter Comes — Topol makes his major motion picture debut, and scores a truly smashing success as the resourceful interpreter who smooths the life of David Niven as the commander of a displaced persons camp after World War II. At the Grove.

Rosemary's Baby — Mia Farrow, Ruth Gordon, John Cassavetes, Ralph Bellamy and Sidney Blackmer head an all-star cast in this production of Ira Levin's best-seller. At the Marina Automovie.

Oliver! — This Academy Award winner is based on the Charles Dickens novel Oliver Twist. From the London musical stage and directed by Sir Carol Reed. At Cinema 70.

The Illustrated Man — Based on three stories by Ray Bradbury, Rod Steiger and Claire Bloom star in this picture about a drifter who is almost completely covered by tattoos, each representing an adventure in his life. At the Regency.

Goodbye, Columbus — A tightly directed story about a young Jewish-American love affair. A moving story, done in excellent taste from Philip Roth's novella. Remarkably faithful to the book, a Hollywood rarity. At the Marina Automovie.

The Chairman — American biochemist (Gregory Peck), a Nobel Prize winner, goes to Red China with a small transmitter implanted in his skull. This is supposed to keep his espionage bosses informed of what's going on, but he doesn't know they can blow him to pieces if he gets into trouble. At the Grove.

Bullitt — A crackling cops and robbers thriller in which detective Steve McQueen is in charge of protecting a hoodlum slated to testify at a Senate hearing. Great suspense, and McQueen gets help from Robert Vaughn, Jacqueline Bissit and Simon Oakland. Filmed in San Francisco. At the State.

Stage Review

"The Owl and the Pussycat" — At the Circle. F. Sherman believes sex should be strictly intellectual, Doris is convinced it's completely physical. They try, unsuccessfully, to find a middle road, which leaves them shouting and screaming at each other, except in bed, when all is hunky-dory. Swiftly paced comedy with only two actors and assorted sound effects and stage props. Great play for a small theater-in-the-round like the Circle. Roy Baxter's superb direction is responsible for much of the funny stuff. Call 624-2669 for reservations. Plays weekends through October. Curtain at 8:30 except Sunday, 7:30.

"Don't Drink the Water" — Political hi-jinks in an American Embassy somewhere behind the Iron Curtain. The Hollanders, just plain folk from New Jersey, are mistaken for spies and take refuge in the Embassy. Plot revolves around the hilarious efforts in behalf of their escape back to the States. Sam and Edie Karas are outstanding as the Hollanders, and they make this Woody Allen comedy a delight to behold. The play moves primarily through dialogue, and great dialogue at that. The Karas' play each line for all it's worth, milking every nuance of comedy from their parts. For reservations call 624-1661. Curtain at 8:30 except Sunday, one hour earlier.

James Schwabacher

Schwabacher Will Appear In MPC 'Lecture-Recital'

James Schwabacher, often referred to as "the West's most versatile man of music," will appear in a lecture-recital, "The Golden Age of Italian Opera," at Monterey Peninsula College Friday, Oct. 3.

The program, featuring a lecture on and the singing of arias from the operas of Rossini, Donizetti, Bellini and Verdi by the noted San Francisco tenor, will begin at 8:30 p.m. in the MPC Music Hall.

Tickets, at $1 for general admission and 75 cents for ASMPA students, may be purchased by mail or afternoons at the college's community services office in the administration building on campus.

"The Golden Age of Opera," which will also include the playing of recorded examples of the great Verdi singers, past and present, is a unit of a series of opera programs first performed at the Lincoln Center for Performing Arts, New York, in 1968.

Schwabacher, an 18-year veteran of the Carmel Bach Festival, has achieved prominence in virtually every aspect of vocal repertoire. He has sung no less than 14 different roles with the San Francisco Opera Company and has appeared as guest soloist with the San Francisco Symphony; the Cincinnati, Vancouver, Buffalo and Portland symphony orchestras; the Ojai and Brevard Music Festivals; and the Festival of Two Worlds at Spoleto, Italy.

His New York debut recital at Town Hall in 1962 was greeted enthusiastically by both critics and audience and led to subsequent engagements at the Lincoln Center in 1963, 1964, and 1968. In spring, 1968, he made a lecture-recital tour of United States colleges and universities and performed at Carnegie Hall in the Bach B Minor Mass.

Alpert Album

A special stereo record album, featuring Herb Alpert & the Tijuana Brass, is now available at a premium price at the Bank of America Branch in Carmel.

Entitled "Music Box," the record is valued at $4.95, but is being sold for $1.30.

August H. Johnson, Manager said the record will be available on a first-come, first-served basis.

The record may be played on either monaural or stereophonic equipment.

Mission Paintings By Deakin At Carmel Art Museum

The Carmel Museum of Art is presently exhibiting "The California Mission Paintings" by Edwin Deakin (1838-1923).

This is the famous collection owned by the Los Angeles County Museum of Natural History, where they are part of the Museum's permanent exhibition on California and the Western Movement.

The 21 paintings and some 20 accompanying sketches are being sponsored by the California Arts Commission for touring throughout the State this Bicentennial Year.

Deakin was born in England and came to the United States as a young man, settling in Chicago. In 1870, after having established himself as a professional artist, he moved to California. He became well known for his landscapes, not only of California but of the West and other parts of the country.

He apparently responded to the picturesque appeal of the missions immediately upon his arrival in California. Other than landscapes, Mission Dolores seems to be his first California subject, but apparently did not pursue the depiction of the missions for several years.

Deakin produced several kinds of paintings of the missions. In addition to his working sketches, almost all of which are in the Howard Willoughby collection in the Oakland Art Museum, there are many paintings.

A number of the paintings are conceived as individual compositions, and vary considerably in format and in the kind of accompanying detail and foreground material.

No attempt has been made to catalogue these, and they are to be found in various collections throughout the state.

Next, there are three complete series of paintings of the 21 missions.

Two of these series are large oil paintings. They are nearly identical.

One of these series is the one now in Los Angeles County Museum of Natural History. It came to them about 1930.

The other series was in Edwin Deakin's own estate and remained in storage until brought to light by Howard Willoughby.

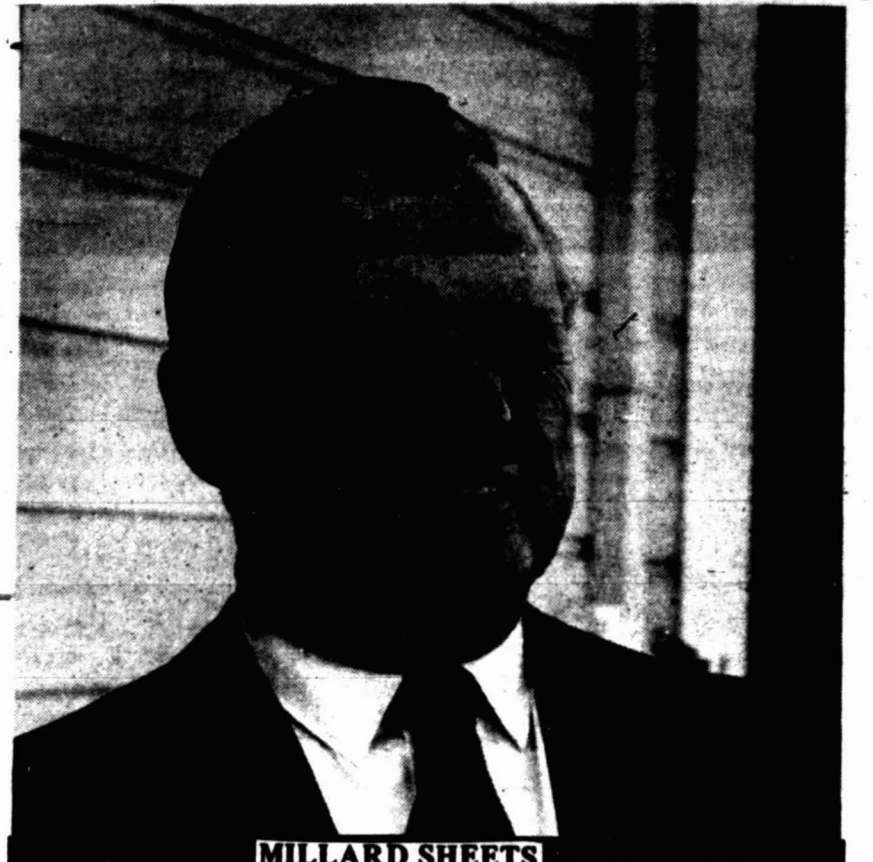

Deakin's style has been described as "Turneresque," and indeed, the mood of several of the paintings suggests that a momentary shadow will pass once an unseen cloud or wisp of fog drifts by.

It is this combination of excellent craftsmanship and historical completeness that gives the Deakin mission paintings their great quality. They are a pleasure-giving document of our history.

The "California Mission Paintings" will be on view at the Carmel Museum of Art through Oct. 4. The museum is on Dolores and 7th in Carmel and is open 10 - 4, Tuesday - Saturday.

ACADEMICIAN - Internationally famous artist Millard Sheets, a member of the National Academy, is joined in tea by Patricia Bowen, center, director of the Perry House Gallery of Fine Art in Monterey, and Mrs. Hatfield of the Dalzell Hatfield Gallery in Los Angeles. A collection of 18 watercolors by Sheets will be shown at the Perry House Gallery from Oct. 6 through Nov. 3.

MILLARD SHEETS

Paintings By Millard Sheets At Perry House Gallery

An international exhibitor for almost four decades' artist, lecturer, mural & tapestry designer, teacher, lithographer, ceramist, and architectural designer, Millard Sheets will open an exhibition at the Perry House Gallery in Monterey on Oct. 6.

In the field of watercolor Millard Sheets is a rugged individualist and whether he paints landscape motifs in India, Mexico, France, Greece, Ireland, or along his beloved California Coast, there is always present a powerful structural form, a brilliance of color, and perhaps the most personal mark of all - a decorative and imaginative quality that makes his watercolors unmistakable in any company of watercolorists.

From the time of his first one-man exhibition in Los Angeles 40 years ago, when he was 24, to the present, he has painted innumerable easel pictures in a variety of media; won more than 50 awards in national competition; taught at several California art schools, and in Hawaii; designed a number of bank buildings, assuming responsibility for their complete craft, sculptural and painted decoration; created murals for several buildings in oil and fresco; designed tapestries; produced a mosaic mural for the Detroit Public Library and a gigantic granite mural for the exterior wall of the Library at Notre Dame, and made drawings, etchings and lithographs in profusion.

The Perry House Gallery considers this a rare opportunity to share the excitement and view the accomplishments of one of Americas most outstanding personalities in the world of art.

The most complete Carmel real estate listings are in the PINE CONE classified ads.

Galerie de Tours Show Varied

Collectors should not overlook the choice of items on view at Galerie de Tours on 6th between Dolores and San Carlos.

An early crayon by John

Sloan, a watercolor by Roualt, another by Marc Chagall vie in interest with large imaginative paintings on silk by Hibell, and spare paintings of country scenes by D. Armstrong.

Most fascinating is a jungle scene of wild animals done with inlaid wood by Spindler.

The gallery also exhibits abstract sculptures in bronze by C.B. Johnson. His graceful, flowing piece in white marble is particularly fine.

Entirely different are the small impressionistic figures in bronze by Gerald Fellman.

It would be hard to find a small exhibit with so much variety, of such high calibre work.

Goings On

Well, it was a high old time at the Los Laureles Lodge last Monday night when 50 people from far and near arrived to celebrate Will Fay's birthday, a party thrown by Mandy Webb, who formerly had the Le Bouef in San Francisco, where he introduced the idea of marketing the steaks via showcase and scales, etc., as we remember Will's Fargo did also for years. When we say they came from far, we mean like the Walkers from Philadelphia, and his sister and brother-in-law, and his Mother and Dad and of course all of his close friends and associates. A beautiful party, thoroughly enjoyed by all, with hostess Aileen Bulmer celebrating her birthday too.

Drove by the Diaz Jr. Robles Del Rio establishment to find Josie out gardening, looking positively beautiful and svelte and happy to be home with the new baby... while papa Dean was down at the Plaza Linda cooking up a storm. May is back at Town and Country but should really extend that respite another week or two if possible. The Valley Lodge reports that they are happily experiencing a much better than average fall business which is marvelous to hear. Rippling River has been busy too with all kinds of big parties... the Kiwanis installation last Saturday... with Dean Campbell being installed as the new President, a group of 35 Navy Wives for a luncheon, and then the Western Motors Picnic and Barbecue for 135 which featured a hamburger broil for the children at noon and a chicken broil at four for the grownups with several salads, beans, and condiments, with a round of amusements which included, badminton, swimming, horse shoes, shuffle board, etc.

The In and Outdoor Shop is featuring a newly imported king's ransom in pearls. Glamorous and regal in opera, matinee, and choker lengths, with large and small button earrings as well as pendants and drop earrings. From far Australia, a sparkling collection of jewels gracing rings for every finger and pins and pendants... a must see, and soon, as there has been a warming response to these items already. The Keeping Room was literally turned into a card manufacturing shop while all hands and a few friends like Dru's guest from Portland Oregon, Elna Mae LeBaron, and Barbara Booth, who wields a mean

The Marzis off to Tahoe for a little vacation, a little business, a little gambling, and no doubt a little girl watching... you know that Rudy. Irene Baldwin busy as usual enjoying life with marvelous asides... fun gal to be around with that great sense of humor. Larry Cummings looking fit and like his gold mining vacation agreed with him... out in front of the Plaza Linda checking the Flores... the patio by the way really looks great... again that artistic hand of Dan Tavares.

Who's To Know

Willard Fay, otherwise fondly known as Will, started his eleventh year as the host and co-owner, of Will's Fargo, this last April. Mandy Webb, an old family friend, who originally had the Le Boeuf Restaurant in San Francisco, is the other half of this most successful combination. Will's background is all restaurant work and this dates back to his early years after school in Modesto and Sonora, where he graduated from high school.

Will is a fourth generation California native, which is indeed a rarity among those of us who call California home, these days. His lovely Mother, whose likeness in oils graces the fireplace wall in the parlor room at Will's, says she sat for the painting in 1960. Ray Am-Hamlin was the artist, who was a protege of Warshawski, many of whose paintings hang in the Carmel Valley Gallery.

One of the nicest things about the great family of closely knit coworkers at the Fargo, is that most of them are the original ones Will brought with him to Carmel Valley in 1959 when they opened. The chef, two of the waiters, and his hostess, Virginia, all came, then there are two waiters who have been with him for six or seven years. Each year they close during January and February, and Marcy, at which point, Will and several of the others go down to Puerto Vallarta where they have a house and completely unwind after their busy season at home.

The Bill of Fare at Wills has remained the same throughout the years, and has been included time and again on national lists of the Best Restaurants in this country, which is certainly an honor to respect and take pride in. It is rare that one goes there that it is not crowded and reservations are to be desired more often than not. One of the items that stands out as a real gourmet morsel, is their abalone steak. A favorite with many, it is superlative here . . . never equalled in this old abalone eaters opinion.

It is a delight to be one of the Fargo family of customers and friends . . . go in and say "Hi, Will", (he usually presides over the bar) and in no time at all the friendliness of the atmosphere takes over and you are one of the family . . . a very nice feeling . . . even before you dine . . . and afterwards, with all that very special service they are famous for . . . AND the fabulous food . . . it is a joy and you really mean it when you say as you leave . . . "We'll be back" . . . for you will be and bring your friends to share one of the nicest places and people on the Peninsula.

Librarian's Notebook

By Ruth Galvin Thornburg, City Librarian

These are hard times. By the city requiring permits on all cars parked in the special library parking lot, a great many tourists and quick-lunch parkers were eliminated.

It is not unusual to find an empty slot there now and happy library patrons are parking and coming to the library in peace.

But a few who, for one reason or another, have failed to add that magic sticker to their car's rear window, have received tickets. They come charging back to the library, waving the tickets in our innocent faces, and yelling about look what we did to them. All we can say is that it has nothing to do with us and we are sorry they are disturbed.

The meter-maids have a hard time, too. The griping and abuse heaped upon them must make them a little leary of the inhuman race.

But the parking situation is working well and the majority of us are happy about the whole thing.

And while we are on the subject of fights, let us take a look at the people who fight for fun, and never more than right now. This we do through the medium of a book by John Cohane.

It is entitled The Indestructible Irish and is a good book, for the man is in love with Ireland and the Irish and for this reason he can give them the back of his hand with relish.

And do you know Irish Monks visited Iceland before 795 and proved the earth was round, and where does that put old Christopher Columbus? Erin go Bragh!

A truly delightful book is Early Doors, My Life and the Theatre by Philip Burton.

The author writes with ease and smoothness and has a happy way of telling of his life and the theatre of those times and all times.

He is a remarkable man for he has been a schoolmaster, an actor, a writer, a director, and an instructor in theatre. He speaks of Shakespeare and the various actors who have done Shakespeare well. Even the mildest interest in the theatre and theatre people should drive you to read this book.

How to Avoid Automobile Accidents a paper bound book by Fred Taylor and it may well be that the remark on the cover is true for it states there "This book may save your life." Many people seem to drive while thinking that having taken driver education they are automatically defensive drivers.

This is a great mistake. Many of them are most offensive drivers and they are driving faster than their feeble brains can cope.

They probably won't read this book but they should, and so should you good drivers, because it will alert you to the hazards on the freeways of today.

Any book by Richard Dillon is worth your attention, and this is especially true of his latest which is entitled Wells, Fago Detective; The Biography of James B. Hume.

It seems that James Hume was a special agent for Wells, Fago in the time following the Gold Rush, and this meant he was hunting and arresting many of the famous brigands of the day. This included Black Bart and Dick Fellows, who was known as the Robin Hood Bandit.

Since Richard Dillon is Librarian of the Sutro Branch of the California State Library it must follow that his information is true, and since it is Richard Dillon doing the writing it follows that it is well done.

And finally, take a glance at Land of the Scots by Nigel Tranter. It's a big impressive book, all about Scotland and the Scots, full to the brim with pictures.

Back to the old grind!

State Board Bans SDS As 'Unfit'

The State Board of Education has ruled that the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) is "unfit to be recognized as a student organization" by local schools.

The board's action in an 8-2 vote at its recent (Sep. 11-12) meeting in San Francisco followed a resolution proposed by State Superintendent Dr. Max Rafferty, who argued:

"SDS leaders have espoused Communist sympathies and that their organization is 'an enemy of the state.'"

Because of the alleged SDS Communist leanings, any school district which knowingly grants the group recognition may be in violation of laws prohibiting advocacy of communism on school property.

Tree lined paths wind through orchards of almond, lemon and orange trees. We wondered the Labyrinth of paths and gazed over the gardens into the valley below and then continued our journey.

The town of Soller is set in a valley of orange and lemon trees that were ripe and ready for plucking as we drove fast. Soller is crowned by Puig Mayor, the highest mountain on the island. This 1,445 meter watchman looks down on a peaceful, story book town and beach.

We stopped for lunch and tasted paella, one of the most noted dishes of Mallorca, a savory mixture of rice, chicken, shrimp and other seafood - delicious. We were served a huge plateful, bread and coke which cost about seventy five cents.

We waddled out of the restaurant full of bursting and walked off our meal in Soller, window shopping and exploring narrow streets and sun-drenched yellow buildings of the Mediterranean type that is typical of the island.

Then we drove to the beach and lounged in the sun until late afternoon at which time we travelled the final leg of our journey back to Palma by way of Valledemosa.

We arrived at the Carthusian Monastery forty

Easter in Mallorca

by Joanne Louise Nix

five minutes before closing time, but although our tour was hurried, we were still able to feel the peace and appreciation of Valledemosa's beauty that George Sand described in the book, A winter in Mallorca.

"Everything that a poet or painter could dream of, nature has created in this place," she wrote. And it was so. The six rooms that Chopin and George Sand occupied, as well as the apothecary where Chopin received his medications, are now a museum dedicated to his memory. Chopin was in Mallorca briefly, but during his stay, he wrote several pieces among which are the twentyfour preludes dedicated to Pleyel and the "Raindrop" which one could hear in the markets of Valledemosa tinkling plaintively inside small Chopin piano music boxes.

The museum, shops, and plying, parrot guides did not seem to mar the atmosphere of gentleness that Chopin and George Sand must have felt here. The sights they saw were a symphony to the eye. I stood in Chopin's garden looked over the terraced hills below and listened to the birds composing their own preludes. When we departed I took a bit of Valledemosa with me, for it left me with a feeling of the past and an appreciation of beauty of the present that somehow lives on, defying the changes of time.

April 10

Today we took a bus to Predio 'Son aar,' a farm house built in the sixteenth century by Don Juan Amar, Marquis del Reguer. The house, a combination palace part of the operating expenses of the PG&E gas department.

He described three categories of advertising used by the gas department as follows: (1) appliance advertising to support the sales promotion program which is designed to increase load on customer lines and thus reduce unit costs of service; (2) customer service advertising, and mead hall, is used for gigantic dinners during which 1,500 people feast on barbecued chicken, suckling pig, potatoes, ice cream, and salad with lettuce that stays awake even after oil and vinegar are added.

We arrived at Son Amar at about nine o'clock in the evening. It was a palatial building, surrounded by gardens and with a lovely cobblestone courtyard where a wagon and harness stood as if ready to be hitched up for a ride.

As we approached the magnificent house, we saw huge fires blazing through the darkness, and above them, turning languidly on long spits, rows and rows of barbecuing chickens and suckling pigs cracked and bubbled enticingly.

We lingered a while at the pits expectantly eyeing our feast to come and listen to the Mallorcan bagpipers or 'Xeremiers,' as they are called playing spritely tunes on small bagpipers and drums. This was different than the traditional flamenco music one associates with Spain, and it had an almost Eastern flavor.

We went inside the great hall and took our seats at one of the many tables. There we ate the crisp, fresh lettuce and tomato salad and crunchy rolls, ensaimadas which are found on nearly every table in Mallorca.

designed to instruct customers in gas appliance safety standards, in how and when to relight furnace pilots and how to increase household heating efficiency, and (3) institutional advertising, designed to advance public understanding of the company's policies, practices, projects and worthiness as a business enterprise.

Efficiency Aided By Advertising Says PG&E

Advertising is the efficient means for communicating sales promotion, customer service and institutional messages to a mass audience, the advertising manager of Pacific Gas and Electric Company testified before the California Public Utilities Commission.

"Advertising enhances efficiency in the company's operations. This benefits the ratepayers because increased efficiency improves customer service and holds down rates," he declared.

The witness was A. James

McCollum, manager of PG&E's advertising and publicity department, supporting the company's pending application for a gas rate increase.

McCollum declared that advertising in newspapers, radio - TV, magazines and other media is an essential

Consumer Power

By Yvonne Earnst

Have you found yourself growing more and more frustrated over the rising cost of practically everything? If so, you are certainly not alone.

This column, new this week, will be devoted to the combatting many forms of consumer frustration. The prevalent attitude among consumers seems to hover, these days, somewhere between dismayed helplessness and simmering anger. We want to do something about that.

It is easy to feel victimized when we feel we have no control over the situation. But we do have some measure of control. We have "consumer power," but we have to learn how to use it.

We have a lot of topics to cover in coming weeks. Just in the grocery area, we will talk about curing "meat counter misery" (that sinking feeling you get as you walk up and down reading the prices.) using "consumer power" to lower meat prices, comparing those grocery store prices, obtaining the cooperation of grocers, food processors and manufacturers, buying "specials," and taking advantage of refund offers.

Beyond the field of food, we'll talk about smart clothes shopping, getting the most out of clearance sales, and using credit without letting it use you. We'll even touch on part-time jobs for women and teen-agers, family budgets, and educational opportunities.

For fun, and possible profit, we'll cover the contests and sweepstakes promotions sponsored by so many advertisers, and what they can mean to you.

Your columnist is a Navy wife, mother of three, raised in a grocery store, educated by schooling and work experience in advertising, a dedicated bargain shopper, an enthusiastic cook, especially interested in nutrition, an active "refunder," and a contest hobbyist.

Next week, we'll start right out with a much discussed consumer frustration - "Meet you at the Meat Counter."

Bank Of America VP Sees 'Golden Age' For U.S.

Despite the contemporary aura of pessimism concerning America's problems, a leading banker believes the country is on the threshold of "a golden age."

A. W. (Tom) Clausen, Vice Chairman of Bank of America's board of directors, said Friday that, "Perhaps, as never before in the history of mankind, the future can truly be shaped in whatever way we wish to shape it."

Addressing the Seattle Chamber of Commerce, Clausen said a curious malaise seems to be settling upon the country in relation to the urban environment because, paradoxically, of the growing attention being paid to urban ills.

"No large problem is solved overnight," he noted.

"But with honest effort and hard work almost every problem is soluble."

The Bank of America executive cited three factors which would make the business-government partnership most effective in attacking problems:

Need for a new recognition and statement by government of the value and power of profit; streamlining of government procedures, and a commitment to economic stability.

"Perhaps more than any other single item we need from our government is a commitment to economic stability," Clausen asserted. "An overheated economy and a continued inflationary spiral is the death knell for any longterm solution to the cities' problems."

BIG JOB - A.G. Michaud, left, president of Del Monte Properties Company, congratulates Alfred Gawthrop, who has been elected chairman of the board of the company. In the background is a portrait of the late Samuel F. B. Morse, whose place Gawthrop will take. The portrait was done by John Boit Morse, son of the founder of the 50-year-old California company.

Gawthrop Named To Board

At its regular meeting recently, the Board of Directors of Del Monte Properties Company elected Alfred Gawthrop as its chairman.

Concurrently, A. Thomas Taylor was elected chairman of the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors.

Gawthrop assumes a post left vacant since the May 10, 1969 death of Samuel F. B. Morse, founder and chairman of Del Monte Properties Company. Taylor fills the position last held by Richard Osborne until his resignation in 1965.

Both Gawthrop and Taylor are directors of Del Monte Properties Company and were directors of Wedron Silica Company, the Chicago corporation acquired by Del Monte Properties in December 1968. Gawthrop continues as President of Wedron Silica.

Witter Reports On 88 Firms

For most investors, Northern California means much more than redwoods, rugged coastline and domestic wines. It also means business - corporate business. The northern part of the State is headquarters for many corporations whose securities are traded publicly.

Eighty-eight of these companies are covered in Dean Witter & Co.'s latest quarterly review of Northern California companies.

The selected firms are Di Giorgio Corp., Hyatt Corp., Morlan Pacific Corp., Pacific Plantronics, Inc. and VARIAN Associates. Dean Witter believes that each of them is "especially attractive" at current price levels, particularly for investors interested in capital gains potential.

SOCIAL SECURITY AND YOU

by Raymond MacDonald

Q. I am working and paying social security on the maximum amount taxable. My husband also works and pays social security on the maximum amount. I have been told that when I file I will receive benefits on my husband's account. Is this true?

A. No, if the amount you would receive on your own is equal to or greater than the amount you would be entitled to on your husband's account, you would only receive benefits on your account. By law you are only permitted to receive the higher benefit if you are entitled on more than one account.

Q. I read that benefits cannot be paid to a disabled widow unless she became disabled before or within seven years from the date of her husband's death. Why was a time limit set?

A. The seven year period was set to allow a reasonable period in which to work long enough to become insured for disability benefits through her own earnings. For a widow who was receiving benefits because she had a child in her care, the seven year period could be counted from the date the last child left her care, married, or became age 18.

Q. I have to pay the Social Security tax on the tips I receive from patrons. What good does it do me?

A. Social Security benefits are based on how much a person earns over the years. By adding your tips to your regular wages, your Social Security benefit will be higher.

Mail your questions to Social Security, c/o the Carmel Pine Cone, Carmel, or phone Social Security Office 373-3351

People Club Dance

The People Club of All Saints' for 7th and 8th graders will hold its second monthly dance at the Parish Hall, Dolores at 9th, on Friday, Oct. 3.

Money raised will finance other events on off weekends of the dances to be held on first Friday of every month.

Authors And Illustrators, Children To Meet Oct. 18

Plans are being completed for the 6th annual Children's Authors and Illustrators Festival, which will be held on Saturday, October 18, from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m., at the Monterey County Fairgrounds in Monterey. At the Festival, children and adults can meet and visit informally with some 35 writers and illustrators of noted children's books.

There are special presentations scheduled as well, with a noted author-illustrator team, Clement and Edith Thacher Hurd, demonstrating how their books are completed.

In addition to live illustrators at work, the Gladys English Memorial Collection of original illustrations for children's books will be displayed. Many have won the Caldecott Medal, given annually for pictorial excellence.

Storytelling will play a large role in the Festival. Richard Chase, a noted American folklorist, will present a tale from the Appalachian Mountains. A marvelous storyteller, he makes himself "right to home" by pulling out his knife and whittling as he tells his tales in mountain talk.

The theme for this year's Festival is based on Robert Louis Stevenson's Treasure Island, which is especially appropriate since Stevenson lived in Monterey for a time.

Decorations will carry out the theme of "Treasure Island Trek," and one of the real treasures is that there is no charge.

Gates will be open throughout the festival and concession facilities will be available.

Also a book shop will be in operation at the fairgrounds during the event and will be stocked with books written and illustrated by those featured at the festival.

Carmel Adult School Opens

Carmel Adult School is taking pre-registration for a class in Mosaics and Enameling on Copper. The class will be conducted by Eleanore Welborn in a spacious, well-equipped classroom in Sunset Center, Bungalow No. 16. Pre-registrations may be made by calling 624-1714.

The course will include gold leafing, mosaics in all media including natural materials, sand-casting, plastics, and enameling. The enameling covers all well known traditional techniques such as Cloissonai, Champlavee, Plique-a-jour and Limoges.

Polish Edition Of 'Science & Health' Ready

A Polish translation of Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy will be published Oct. 3, it has been announced by Clem W. Collins, publishers' agent for The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston.

The Polish edition is the 11th translation of Science and Health authorized by the Board of Trustees of The Christian Science Publishing Society.

Several years were required to translate the 700-page Christian Science textbook into Polish, with the English and Polish texts on facing pages, a format used for all translations of Mrs. Eddy's books.

Masters Concert K-Wave Stereo (96.9)

The following major works will be featured on the Masters Concert during the week of Oct. 2:

Thursday, Oct. 2 at 8 p.m., Mozart - Piano Concerto No. 20 in D Minor, K. 466; 10 p.m., Schubert - Symphony No. 4 in C Minor. Friday, Oct. 3 at 8 p.m., Brahms - Piano Trio in C Major, Opus 87; 10 p.m., Mahler - Symphony No. 10. Monday, Oct. 6 at 8 p.m., Williams - Symphony No. 5 in D Major; 10 p.m., Chopin - Les Sylphides. Tuesday, Oct. 7 at 8 p.m., Goldmark - Rustick Wedding Symphony, Opus 26; 10 p.m., Prokofieff - Concerto No. 4 for Piano (Left Hand) and Orchestra, Opus 53. Wednesday, Oct. 8 at 8 p.m., Berlioz - Harold in Italy, Opus 16; 10 p.m., Hindemith - Symphony: Mathis der Maler.

Christian Science Bible Lesson

"Ye judge after the flesh; I judge no man." This Bible verse from John is included in the Lesson-Sermon to be read in all Christian Science churches this Sunday.

A passage from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy used in supporting commentary reads: "Immortal men and women are models of spiritual sense, drawn by perfect Mind and reflecting those higher conceptions of loveliness which transcend all material sense."

The subject of the sermon is "Unreality."

Services will be held at the 1st Church of Christ, Scientist, Carmel at 11:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. All are invited to attend.

Ken Jones Joins Area Boy Scouts

Frank Buck, Monterey Bay Area Council Executive for the Boys Scouts of America announces Ken Jones as a new member of the executive staff.

Jones will act as assistant to Lyman Grover, the District Scout Executive for the Monterey Peninsula area.

Previous to college he was a scout for nearly 10 years and a junior assistant scout master to troop 233 in San Jose.

Jones graduated in January with a BA degree in Public Relations from San Jose State College.

During college he was active in promoting a public relations club.

He gained experience working with people as a folksinger, church camp counselor, scouter, and as a member of the college newspaper staff.

What is Christian Science?

It is a religion based on the words and works of Christ Jesus. It has helped many like you to prove in a measure the meaning of Christ Jesus' promise:

"He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also."

It shows the scientific basis of Christianity and how to avail yourself of the laws of God in everyday life. If you would like to learn more about Christian Science, you are welcome to come to our Reading Room and to read this week's Bible Lesson.

Lobos Blanked By Ventura; Take On DeAnza 'Dons'

By Marc Hinchey

Blanked 21-0 last Saturday afternoon by a strong Ventura team, Monterey Peninsula College will resume football action Friday evening. The Lobos will travel to Los Altos for an 8 p.m. contest with DeAnza College's Dons at the Foothill College Stadium.

Last week the Lobos did many of the things necessary to win, outgaining the host Pirates and looking fairly impressive on defense, but the same mistakes that have plagued MPC throughout the young season — the kicking game, and offensive woes for instance, shot down the Lobos.

MPC started out strongly, taking the opening kickoff and promptly marching deep into Ventura territory, only to have the drive stall at the Pirate four yard line. Neither team was able to

Padres Place Second In Jamboree

by Hal Gann

On defense, Carmel High's Varsity football team has been keen in three outings this season. But, offensively, poor timing in the backfield once again proved to be the topic of conversation among local gridiron fans.

Last Friday evening, Hollister High, triumphed over a spirited Palma team, the Padres, and San Lorenzo Valley to take the East-West division of the Mission Trail League Jamboree.

Carmel's 4-4-2-1 defensive alignment looked great in the local entry's first two encounters, as the Padres outpointed Palma, 4-1, and then took the measure of SLV, 4-3.

Jamboree scoring was based on one point for each first down, in addition to regulation points given for touchdowns, conversions and field goals. In the round robin tournament, there were no field goals.

But the Haybalers were waiting in the wings to wax Carmel, and proceeded to march 62 yards in eight plays for a touchdown after they received the kickoff to start the clash. Running back Cembelin was unstoppable on a series of crashes and slants off guard and tackle. The extra-point boot was no good.

Hollister blanked the Padres, 12-0, in this chapter, the other points registered on first downs, but Carmel staged a brilliant goal-line stand, to stave off another Hollister TD, after the host team had it first and 10 on the seven.

The Carmel defense was sparked by Brian Robotti, 205-pound senior tackle, who made several good stops. Also impressive on defense were Lance Lighthall, Jim Callahan, and Bill Rees at ends and Mike Christensen and Steve Taylor at guard and tackle.

It's going to be rough going against the Haybalers in Hollister this Friday evening, in the first league tilt of the season for Carmel. Game time, after the Junior Varsity clash at 6, is scheduled for 8 p.m.

(Radio KRSA-FM, 100.7 Mc, will present a live broadcast of the Carmel-Hollister game, starting at 7:50 p.m.).

come up with a score in the first quarter.

However, late in the period a bad snap on a Lobo punt gave Ventura the ball at the Monterey five yard line. On the first play of the second stanza Pirate quarterback Jeff Attebery completed a touchdown pass to end Fred Dineley and Abel Juarez kicked the PAT to give the hosts a 7-0 advantage, which held up through the end of the first half.

In the third period, Ventura struck again. Swift halfback Darrell Downey shook loose from the Lobo defense and sped 46 yards for a second Pirate TD. The conversion kick failed, and it was 13-0.

With quarterback Dave Stewart doing the throwing and tight end Bill Stowers the catching, the Lobos again started to move. A pass interception on the Pirate 12 yard line eventually thwarted Monterey hopes once more.

The fourth quarter saw good efforts by both teams, with the defensive units shining. Late in the frame with Monterey on their own five, the Lobo fate was sealed. New quarterback John "Pogo" Pettas, who had earlier thrown three straight completions, had a sideline pass deflected and intercepted by Ventura linebacker Gary Sanders. Sanders ambled into the end zone for the game's final score with only two minutes remaining.

DeAnza should pose a solid threat to the Lobos. The Dons, coached by Bob Pifferini, currently have a 1-1 record, as does MPC. Last week, the Dons lost a hard fought 25-14 decision to American River College.

MPC's probably starting lineups will be (offensively) ends Bill Stowers and Bill Swift, tackles John Bristol and Ralph Serrano, guards John Napoli and Troy Spindler, center Chris Ingalls, halfback Ray Dolor, fullback Brad Kight, flanker Jim Donovan and quarterback Dave Stewart.

Defensively, Coach Luke Phillips is expected to go with ends Crosby Anderson and Paul Murphy, tackles Dennis Welch and Charley Smith, middleguard Ken Goff, linebackers Paul Paquin and Sandy McFarland, halfbacks Jim Bailey and Alva Wright, and safeties Dan Hoffman and Dwight Greenwell.

MISH Town Hall Series Starts Oct. 10

Five prominent Peninsula residents will introduce the visiting celebrities in the upcoming Town Hall lectures, sponsored by the Monterey Institute of Speech and Hearing Auxiliary.

Mrs. Church A. Chappell, active in community little theaters, will kick off the community service series at the Cinema 70 Theater when she introduces playwright Robert E. Lee on Oct. 10. Lee, who lives in the San Fernando Valley, and has taught at the Pasadena Playhouse, is the author of "Inherit the Wind" and "Auntie Mame."

Ted Durein, managing editor of the Monterey Peninsula Herald, will introduce a fellow newspaperman, columnist Russell Baker, on Nov. 19. Baker's column examining Washington and international politics, "The Observer," is syndicated in the local paper.

A former ambassador to Mexico, Fulton Freeman, now president of the Monterey Institute of Foreign Studies, will introduce a diplomat's wife, Lady Caradon, to the Jan. 8, 1969, lecture audience. Her husband is Lord Caradon, permanent representative to the United Nations, and a former governor of Cyprus, about which Lady Caradon has written a book.

The director of drama at Monterey Peninsula College, Dr. Morgan Stock, will be on the speaker's stand Feb. 27 to introduce noted actor and art connoisseur Vincent Price.

And KIDD managing owner Robert K. Sherry will present veteran news commentator Richard C. Hottelet on the final lecture Apr. 6.

Tickets for the Town Hall series are available at the Friar Tuck Book Store in Carmel, Thunderbird Book Store and the In and Outdoor Shop in Carmel Valley, at Cinema 70.

The guest speakers will also appear at luncheons following the lectures, and tickets are optional to ticket holders.

Can-Am Million Dollar Cup Oct. 10

With financial rewards totaling a gaudy $1 million, the Canadian-American Challenge Cup Series heads for Laguna Seca Raceway Oct. 10-12 for the West Coast debut of unlimited Group Seven cars.

Tickets for the Monterey-Castrol Grand Prix weekend, ninth race in the 11 race series, go on sale this week at Macy's and numerous locations throughout Northern California.

Restricted by few rules, the brute Group Seven machines — powered by engines developing up to 700 horsepower — are the fastest cars on any track in the world.

Their drivers are some of the best international aces in the business. Headed by former New Zealanders Bruce McLaren and Denis Hulme, now carting their U.S. dollars home to Great Britain, the crack Can-Am field includes: such Americans as Dan Gurney, Mario Andretti, Chuck Parsons, Lothar Motschenbacher and Joe Leonard.

With these drivers and cars, anything can happen on Laguna Seca's narrow, twisting 1.9 mile ribbon of asphalt. More than 35,000 fans are expected to jam the hills surrounding the nine-turn track to see just what.

attending this meeting but I was fortunate last year to have been elected Chairman of the Central Coast Regional Supervisors Association which includes our nine central coast counties. Since no Chairman will be elected until their annual meeting in October, I guess I am still unofficially (in name only) regional chairman.

After thinking it over I decided to accept the invitation.

After all, the Governor's Office, our own State Assembly and the State Senate were unable to come up with a tax reform plan acceptable to a majority of the legislators of both political parties; maybe the Supervisors Association can come up with a plan that will be acceptable to the entire State legislature and the people.

I think I can do our district possibly more good by listening instead of talking at this meeting.

And, those of you who know me, also know that in my case this is pretty hard to do. Speaking out of turn and speaking often are two of my weak points. My wife, Betsy, probably knows several more which I won't discuss at this time.

I wish the majority of our State legislators had been former city councilmen or county supervisors. The experience of dealing with taxpayers and people on the grass roots level is invaluable when it comes time to serve on a State or Federal level. Many of our State legislators have come to the Assembly and the Senate through this route although I understand only five of the present members of the lower house, or Assembly, were formerly County Supervisors.

When the State administration presented a suggested tax reform program to the legislature last April it involved a massive shift in taxes totalling nearly two billion dollars.

This recommended shift being principally from property taxes to some form of increase in sales tax and a possible small increase in income taxes. When we stop and realize that our entire budget for the State is only 6.2 billion, you can understand why we can't afford to make mistakes but must come back to you, the people, with the best possible tax reform program.

We've all heard the old saying "it is an ill wind that blows no good." Maybe it is a good thing we didn't come up with a final State tax reform plan because now we read where Federal tax reforms are being considered and, although we will not know the full impact of the Federal plan until the adjournment of Congress later in the year, if they adopt any program it is bound to affect our approach to the same problem on the State level.

P.S. I still think the Governor should call a special session to work on tax reform only, but, after all, I am the low man (in seniority) on the totem pole.

Letters To The Editor

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the Carmel Pine Cone for getting word to the people when immediate action was needed. Many hundreds of telegrams and letters were received by the Governor and his cabinet expressing the desires of Monterey County residents to exclude oil leasing and drilling in Monterey Bay and our Monterey coastline.

In a true Democracy the voice of the people will be heard. The proof of this statement was the signing of SB57 (Grunsky-Wood) by the Governor of our State in spite of considerable opposition.

It seems as though God endowed Monterey and Santa Cruz Counties with a little something extra in the way of natural beauty and the least we can do is to preserve this natural beauty for the next generation and the generation to follow.

Sincerely,
BOB WOOD
Assemblyman
34th District

Dear Sir:

I hope that you will find space in your paper to commend Assemblyman Robert Wood for his outstanding service, not only to his constituents in Monterey County but to all residents of Monterey Bay and other parts of the State and Nation for his role in the ultimate passage of Senate Bill 57. This bill, co-authored by Senator Grunsky of Watsonville, prevents the drilling for purposes of extracting or exploring for oil within Monterey Bay and adjacent coastal waters. It passed both houses of the legislature without opposition.

When Assemblyman Wood learned that due to opposition from members of the Governor's Cabinet there was a very strong chance that this bill would not be signed into law, he immediately went on the air and alerted the entire Monterey Bay Area of this dire possibility in time for the people to react and allow their thoughts to be known to the Governor. I am confident that had Bob Wood not reacted in such a responsible manner, this much needed law would not have been passed. For his efforts he has earned the admiration of many new friends on the Santa Cruz side of Monterey Bay. In my opinion he displayed a high order of integrity in carrying out his campaign pledges which I followed very closely in his campaign against my friend Fred Farr. Although I am a Democrat it gives me a great deal of pleasure to give credit where credit is due. Where there is a threat to the quality of our environment people of all political persuasions must join together. In such matters we can no longer afford the luxury of partisanship and political game playing of any kind. Assemblyman Wood deserves a medal. I hope that someone from your area finds time to give him one.

Sincerely,
Louis B. Muhly
Santa Cruz, California

These words from the voice of a great general and a greater patriotic commander, General of the Army Douglas MacArthur.

I bring these words to you as the Senior Vice Commander of the Veterans of World War I. Our ranks, like the ranks of the Grand Army of the Republic, are fading away in the inexorable passing of time. It is over 50 years that we sang "The Yanks are Coming."

Buy A Home Get Medals

Wright Fisher, president of Monterey Peninsula Associates, Monterey real estate brokers and developers, today announced that the firm will install, free of charge, two large bronze Bicentennial Medallions in every new home sold in their Skyline Forest subdivision, or in Skyline Crest.

This is one way we can help to make Monterey's 200th Birthday party a success" Fisher stated. Two of the 2 1/2" bronze coins will be installed, so that both faces will be displayed.

Viking Regatta by Boy Scouts

The first annual Viking Regatta, hosted by the Monterey Bay Area Council, Boy Scouts of America, will be held Oct. 17, 18 and 19 at the Sea Scout base in Monterey.

The weekend activity will bring together 350 Sea Scouts from more than 30 ships throughout California, to compete in a large variety of nautical events.

Most Sea Scout groups attending the Regatta will come by power or sailboat and will arrive at the Monterey base late Friday night or early Saturday morning. While in port they will eat and sleep on their boats.

Sea Scout ships from this area taking part in the Regatta include Ship 26 from Monterey; Robert Smith, Skipper and Ship 141, Fort Ord; Larry Stowell, skipper.

Mrs. Griffin And Mrs. Leonard Sponsors For Antique Show

Mrs. Allen Griffin and Mrs. Harry A. Leonard both of Pebble Beach, have been invited to act as sponsors for the 13th annual Antiques Show and Sale to take place at the Episcopal Church of St. Matthew in San Mateo.

Each year many local antique enthusiasts drive to San Mateo to view this lovely show set against a background of history. The Church is more than 100 years old, and antique show visitors step into the past through the cloistered courtyard and enter the old English parish hall which houses displays by 25 outstanding antique dealers who have been invited to bring the finest in old jewelry, silver, glassware, furniture, clocks, and many other art objects dear to the hearts of collectors and browsers.

The show hours will be from 11 to 9 on Oct. 14 and 15 and from 11 to 6 on the 16th. A donation of $1 will benefit the many community service organizations assisted by the League for Service.

Your Heart

More Americans die each year from diseases of the heart and blood vessels than the total killed in all the wars of our country's history. The Central Mission Trails Heart Association says that early detection and treatment can help reduce the toll.

In a single year, some 250,000 Americans between the ages of 20 and 65 are cut down by heart and blood vessel diseases. The Central Mission Trails Heart Association says lives could be prolonged by regular medical checkups.

A "coronary care unit" is a special area set aside in a hospital for patients with symptoms of heart attack. The Central Mission Trails Heart Association says that these special units developed as a result of clinical research are saving lives daily.

Personal

The first drop of rain sent us scurrying to get the tables and drums inside with candles lighted on each, and it really brought home how delightful our indoor fireside dining is. The sun is bright again and one may choose which area suits his mood best - indoors or out.

With Fall comes our change of lunch goodies which now includes a rich, full-bodied soup luncheon - a different one for each day: Tuesday - Turkey Serendipity with home made noodles and Lemon Herb Bread. Wednesday - Split Pea with Sausage Rings and Serendipity Cheese Bread. Thursday - Beef Pot au Feu with White Bread. Friday - Mushroom Curry with Lemon Herb Bread. Saturday - Beef Borscht with Sour Dough Rye Bread. Sunday Danish Dumpling with Chicken and White Bread.

So come on up to the Keeping Room where Claudia is building salubrious sandwiches or ladling out serendipitous soup or baking great Quiche Lorraine and homemade breads and cookies and pies, all made from Dru's super-delicious recipes.

Claudia, Dru, Minnie Ha Ha the laughing dove and all the goodies are at No. 6 Pilot Road, Plaza de Flores, Carmel Valley Village. Reservations for special parties. 659-2512. Closed Mondays.

FREE HYPNOSIS demonstration and explanation. Friday evening 8:00 p.m. by reservation only. Call 375-1116.

A Modest Mediterranean Villa In Carmel?

We have one where you can enjoy the luxury of Old World charm and all the modern conveniences. This 3-bedroom, 3-bath residence has been completely remodeled inside while retaining the quiet formality of European elegance outside. The huge living room and formal dining room speak of many hours of hospitality to be shared with friends, and the modern gourmet kitchen makes even everyday meals a joy to prepare.
Well laid out gardens and lovely patio complement the seclusion and privacy of the property. And as a bonus there is an additional "guest quarters" of one bedroom and bath away from the main house. A 2-car garage and loads of storage complete the package. Way, way under today's market price.

About A Very Hospitable Home

Take the walk that crosses the green lawn to the long, low ranch house of used brick and stucco and handsome shake roof. When the friendly door is opened, pause to admire the 11-foot entry hall. Notice the quiet 11' x 16' dining room, admire the enchanting patios you see through the living room window-doors, or the handsome fireplace with its travertine marble face. Off the spacious central hallway are three beautiful bedrooms - each with its own bath.

But wait 'til you see the kitchen! All the family will really live in this delightful combination of gourmet-cook's kitchen, breakfast room, and family relaxation area. A utility room and a half bath off the kitchen, too, and a double garage PLUS a carport with lots of storage.

Decorated in exquisite taste with many fine extras such as the silk wallpaper, lovely draperies, fine carpeting. You can just tell by the "feel" of this house that the owners have loved it and their friends have been happily entertained in it. Located in the sunshine of Hatton Fields, which means also convenience to shopping, schools, and both Carmel and Monterey. The price is $85,000. (No, you haven't seen it before because we just listed it!)

Growing Carmel Traffic Problems Occupy Planning Commission Meet

Conditions attributable to the growing number of automobiles in Carmel occupied a good deal of attention at last week's meeting of the Carmel Planning Commission. But, first, there was an interruption unrelated to those conditions.

Quite suddenly, Commissioner Edward Neroda took the chair which was unexpectedly vacated by Commission Chairman Charles McEwen, and ordered Mayor Barney Laiolo, who happened to be in the Council Chambers, to take a seat at the Commission table and to "explain, please, just why he shouldn't be recalled."

Mayor Laiolo, though seeming to be surprised, took the proposal good-naturedly and in stride. In a moment the charade was over, as a birthday cake, with candles lighted, was brought in, and a somewhat feeble rendition of "Happy Birthday" was sung by the Commissioners and the press, for the day was Laiolo's birthday.

Then the Commission returned to its regular agenda - and to a consideration of those conditions provoked by use of automobiles in Carmel.

There was, for one, the obstruction of views by high fences at corner lots. Planning commissioners had been discussing this matter intermittently through the years, but last week they voted to have Planning Director John Riling draw up a resolution on the subject, to be forwarded to the City Council. The resolution was to be based on a report which had been drawn up by a Commission committee and presented orally by Commissioner Fred Keeble, who said, in part: "... recent years have brought increased numbers of visitors and new residents... this has resulted in noticeable increase in the number of automobiles... within residential areas... residents of Carmel are afforded the opportunity of establishing fence structures to an eight-foot height... without a building permit..."

Two recommendations were contained in the report. One called for reduction of fence heights at or near corners - to a maximum of six feet. The other called for establishing a requirement that a city building permit would have to be requested, before any fence at all could be built. The first condition was approved; the second, rejected.
